Hamburg High School National Latin Exam Awardees 2020

The National Latin Exam is a competitive test covering a gamut of topics pertaining to the Latin language, derivatives, Roman history, culture, and mythology. It is taken by Latin students in 14 countries. This year, 34 Hamburg students participated in this comprehensive exam across four levels of Latin study, including advanced Latin IV. For all the students' hard work, HHS can boast an impressive 4 Gold medals, 5 Silver medals, 6 magna cum laude ('with great praise') certificates, and 4 cum laude ('with praise') certificates. Students awarded such honors scored above the national average for their respective levels. Please congratulate the following students for their impressive accomplishments, and to all the students who participated, Miss Nicastro and Mr. Tretter vos maxime exultant!

Latin I:
Macey Blum: Silver medal

Latin II:
Sydney Smith: Gold medal
David Conklin: Gold medal
Bradley Tobin: magna cum laude award
Luke Kirchberger: magna cum laude award
Lillia Schaefer: magna cum laude award
Stella Pelkey: cum laude award

Latin III:
Chika Simon: Gold medal
Jaden Troiano: Gold medal
Jenna Jablonski: Silver medal
Leah Iwanitzki: Silver medal
Leah Jarzynski: magna cum laude award
Delaney O'Brien: magna cum laude award
Jenna Crowley: cum laude award

Latin IV (Poetry):
Katherine Hennessy: Silver medal
Anthony Zogaib: Silver medal
Michael Carter: magna cum laude award
Madeline Della Vella: magna cum laude award
Claire Danyluk: cum laude award